Within my soul also are other seeds that will like dormant until I decide to accept God's grace to release the life-giving potential in them. Among the dormant seeds is the forgiveness seed.

This seed bothers me like a stone in my shoe, as it waits for me to approach another person with forgiveness. There is also a prayer seed in me that contains the potential for a more serious prayer life. It is waiting for me to decide to make a retreat or seek spiritual direction.

There is the patience seed that would give me greater peace if I would let it. And a creativity seed longs to be nurtured in the form of art and music.

What seeds may be lying dormant in your inner closet?

This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land...and the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how.

—Mark 4:26-27

There will no CCF newsletters until fall. But CCF events happen all summer. How do I find out about them?

CCF:mail is the on-line reminder service of Corpus Christi Fellowship. Every week we send e-mail with information and late breaking details about CCF events. Over 200 CCF members get their CCF news this way. You can too. And best of all, it's free!

If you have an e-mail address with an @ sign or if you subscribe to CompuServe or America Online, you can subscribe to ccf:mail and have it sent to your office or home. To subscribe, send your request to: CCF@LGARDE.COM.

We also a fax version of ccf:mail. It will typically be two pages of tiny print plus a cover sheet. It is usually sent Wednesday morning.

In order to receive ccf:fax, you must be in the 714 or 949 area codes. Your fax machine must be able to accept a fax 24 hours a day. Please do not subscribe to ccf:fax if you can get e-mail.

To subscribe to ccf:fax, call 714-532-4041 during daylight hours, state the name (and optional company) to be printed on the fax, the fax number, and a voice number.
